Retailer Comments

Los Angeles-based streetwear brand, UNDEFEATED, has once again joined forces with Galpin Auto Sports (GAS), a globally recognized bespoke car designer, to introduce this personalized Land Rover Defender build inspired by and tailored to urban environments. The design for these urban Defenders was led by James Bond, co-founder and co-owner of UNDEFEATED, alongside the experienced team at GAS. UNDEFEATED shared that every element, from the exterior to the interior, was meticulously chosen and customized to stand out in the urban jungle. The 2022 Land Rover Defender 90 X-Dynamic HSE Sport Utility AWD comes in a sleek Titanium White finish and features a range of modern amenities like an 11.4-inch touchscreen system, a Head-Up Display and Wi-Fi connectivity with a data plan. For comfort during city commutes, it features 4:20:40 fixed heated rear seats with a center armrest, cabin air ionization with PM2.5 filter and a cold climate pack. Additional details include reupholstered door panels and an extended black exterior pack, as well as a raised air intake, expedition roof rack and wheel arch extensions to round the vehicle out. The Defender rides on Forgiato x UNDEFEATED 19D Cactus Jack wheels, encased in custom variant Goodyear Wrangler Duratrac tires, designed for a smooth ride on city streets. The suspension system comprises air suspension both at the front and rear, for a comfortable and controlled driving experience.
