Retailer Comments

Courtesy Vehicle The 2025 Defender 110 X-Dynamic SE in Fuji White is a powerful and luxurious SUV designed to tackle any terrain. Equipped with a V8 supercharged engine and an 8-speed automatic transmission, this 4WD vehicle is built for adventure. Step inside and experience comfort like never before with 14-way heated and cooled electric memory front seats, 3-zone climate control, and a premium 15-speaker Meridian Surround Sound System. The interior is adorned with extended leather upgrades and a head-up display, while the leather-wrapped steering wheel adds a touch of elegance. Safety and convenience features abound, including adaptive suspension, a navigation system, Apple CarPlay Android Auto compatibility, and a comprehensive suite of airbags and advanced safety systems. The vehicle also boasts a range of packages such as the Emergency Pack, Handover Pack, and Premium Interior Protection Storage Pack, ensuring that every aspect of your driving experience is covered. On the exterior, this Defender stands out with 22 Gloss Sparkle Silver Style 5098 wheels, a power moonroof, and body-colored spare wheel cover. The vehicle is also equipped with a tow hitch receiver, rear fog lights, and an exterior parking camera to assist in various driving situations. The Knauz Automotive Group has been a trusted name in the Chicagoland area since 1934, providing unparalleled customer service and support. As a testament to their dedication, customers are offered complimentary loaner vehicles, vehicle washes, and pick-up and delivery services for servicing within designated areas. Additionally, their certified collision center ensures that your vehicle will be expertly restored in the event of an unforeseen accident, giving you peace of mind on the road.
